MANY ATTENDED HYDE FUNERAL

Cold Wave Brings Calls For Good Fellow Help

The sale of tickets for the Good Fellow benefit dance to be given in Rosbrook's hall Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which will be used to relieve conditions of suffering and physical unhappiness in Dixon, is progressing favorably and there is no doubt that the dance will be very largely attended; for the price of fifty cents is small, enabling those of moderate means to assist. Music for the dancing will be furnished by the Marquette orchestra of seven pieces, which insures an enjoyable evening for the dancers.

The Good Fellow movement is not limited to the Christmas tide, for the Good Fellows are doing a lot of work now, providing shoes and clothing for little folks who would be suffering intensely but for the efforts of the club. The bitter cold wave which broke over this community Sunday has added to the need of immediate work on the part of the Good Fellows, and the demands have been met most encouragingly.

Therefore the good which can be realized at the dance is evident, and the good people of Dixon—all Good Fellows—will undoubtedly patronize the affair most liberally.

Depot Avenue Residents Found Midnight Prowlers

Three Men Aroused People There Late Saturday Night

Several of the residents along Depot avenue were aroused from their slumbers shortly after midnight Saturday night by prowlers around their homes. Three men were in the party.

At the J. O. Shaulis home corner of Fifth and Depot avenue, they went onto the front porch and rang the door bell. The family were awakened and just as Mr. Shaulis entered the front hallway he heard one of the party remark: "There is no one in; let's try the window." He listened a few seconds and attempted to get a view of who it might be from a nearby window and shortly a man appeared at the window and attempted to force it up. At that he called out and inquired what was wanted, and the three men took to their heels and ran south on Depot avenue. From the tracks in the snow it could be seen that the men had been around the house.

The parties had also been on the Josiah Fry porch, the Fry home being just to the south of the Shaulis residence.

ASSAILANT'S VICTIM REFUSES TO TALK

MAN STABBED ON THE STERLING BRIDGE WILL NOT IMPLICATE OTHER.

(Special to The Telegraph)

Sterling, Dec. 14.—Victor Bastoni, an Italian, is in a critical condition at the Sterling hospital today as the result of being stabbed by an enemy on Saturday evening while crossing the First avenue bridge between Sterling and Rock Falls. The assailant, whose name is unknown to the police, escaped, and the wounded man maintains a strict silence regarding his would-be murderer's identity. Bastoni received a long gash in the back, the closing of which required 26 stitches. The stabbing is the supposed outgrowth of a feud.

ICE IS TWO INCHES THICK ON THE RIVER

CRYSTAL FORMED BY COLD SNAP IS SECOND COVERING THIS SEASON.

The fall in the temperature of Sunday night brought smiles to the countenance of the ice man as well as to the coal dealer. The mercury crept below the zero mark and at noon today had not gotten higher than twelve above.

The river is frozen over for the second time this season and the crust of ice measures about two inches. To the ice man the conditions are ideal for one of the best ice harvests in years. The light fall of snow Saturday night covered the banks of the river and kept the dust from being blown on the surface of the stream as it froze over. Any dirt that may now get on the ice can be planned off and thus leave a clean surface underneath.

The river froze over for the season last year on December 26, and ice harvest was started on February 12.

MOOSE BAZAR CLOSED SAT. EVE.

The Moose bazar, which was a successful week for the Dixon lodge, came to a close Saturday evening, with the largest crowd of the week in attendance, and all enjoyed a happy evening.

CITY PAID BONDS WITHOUT BORROWING MONEY AS USUAL

CITY'S SHARE OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS WAS $10,230—PAID THIS MORNING.

Heretofore City Has Found It Necessary to Borrow Money At This Time.

The commission form of city government, as exemplified by the commissioners of Dixon, demonstrated its worth again this morning when, at the regular meeting of the city council $10,230.13 worth of public improvement bonds, issued to cover the city's share of special assessments due this year, were ordered paid.

For the payment is made from the money in the general fund and there is still $11,000 left in that fund to carry the city until next year's taxes and saloon licenses come in. The feature of the payment made today lies in the fact that heretofore the city has always found it necessary to borrow about $12,000 to take care of this detail; and naturally every one of the commissioners is proud of the showing which enables the payment to be made without anticipating on next year's taxes.

Bills Paid.

The payment of the city's share of special assessments was included in the payment of bills, the total amount of the bills paid this morning being $10,899.73.

Raise Salary.

The salary of the utility officer was today raised from $60 to $65 per month, placing that office on the same basis of pay as the policemen and firemen.

Control Livery Stables.

The council also passed an ordinance amending section 462 of the city ordinances, by including livery stables in the list of businesses to establish which the consent of a majority of property owners within 200 feet of the proposed business must be secured.

Minor Business.

The council also this morning accepted the resignation of Police Officer Cunningham, and also provided for the division of a special assessment against a lot in north Dixon which has been owned by George Dixon and which, since the assessment was made, has been divided with Dr. C. A. E. LeSage.

LEG FRACTURED BY ENGINE EXPLOSION

WINFIELD BRINK OF THE BEND WAS THE VICTIM OF AN ACCIDENT.

The explosion of a gasoline engine on which he was working at his father's farm late Saturday afternoon resulted in serious injuries for Winfield Brink, the 21 year old son of Theodore Brink of the Bend, and the young man is now at the Dixon hospital under the care of a surgeon. The cause of the explosion of the engine is not known, but it suddenly blew up and the young victim's left leg was badly fractured, while the big toe of the left foot was so badly mangled it was necessary to amputate the member.

FOUND ISSUES FOR LEWIS

Justice Grover Gehant this morning rendered his decision in the case of the city of Dixon vs. John C. Lewis in which he found for the defendant.

This case grew out of an alleged shortage in measure in potatoes sold and a warrant was sworn out on complaint of George Bishop. The contention of the defendant was that he sold the potatoes at so much for the sack instead of by weight or measure.

Lad Who Stole Horse Is Now Army Deserter

Geo. W. McGregor Apprehended At Franklin Grove Is Wanted

George W. McGregor of Franklin Grove was taken into custody Sunday morning at the home of his grandparents, Dr. Hepler in Franklin Grove, charged with being a deserter from the army. The arrest was made by Sheriff R. R. Phillips and Police Commissioner J. D. Van Bibber.

This is not the first time that the young man has been in trouble. Three years ago last spring he came out from Chicago, where he had been living for a few months, to visit his grandparents, and he went over to the barn of Al Steward and throwing a saddle one of his riding horses started off. He rode down into Bureau county and there represented that he came all the way from the western plains and was without funds and asked for something to eat.

Sent to Pontiac.

As soon as Mr. Stewart discovered the loss of his horse he notified the authorities and a few days later the horse was traced and young McGregor was caught. He pleaded guilty to the charge in court and was sent to Pontiac, where he served about two years. While confined at the reformatory he learned to play the clarinet and was a member of the institution band.

After being released he drifted to the west and at Cheyenne, Wyo., he enlisted in the army as a musician. In September he was transferred to a fort in Georgia and after being there a short time the wanderlust struck him and the routine of army life not striking his fancy he decamped one morning. When an enlisted man deserts the

The sudden turning over of the Ford machine they were driving near Nelson Saturday afternoon resulted in the serious injury to W. J. Bolejack, superintendent of construction of the Home Telephone Co. and Fred Hoyer, wire chief of the Central Union Telephone Co.

They were driving along at a fair rate of speed when the car suddenly swung to the side of the road and slid over the incline, overturning. Both men were thrown out and one of the front wheels of the machine was broken. Bolejack had his back badly wrenched and received bruises about the body while Hoyer sprained his wrist and sustained other bruises.

The condition of Miss Ella Galvin has taken a change for the worse and her brothers and sisters have been summoned here from off the road, with the several theatrical companies which they are out with. ESCAPED LUNATIC ADMITS MURDER OF JENNIE MILLER

HELD FOR AURORA OFFICERS

Says His Name Is Howard T. Grant And That He Was in Aurora on Nov. 18.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Jamesville, Wis., Dec. 14.—Admissions which—barring the possibility they may prove to be the vapors of a diseased mind—practically constitute a confession to the murder of Miss Jennie Miller, the Aurora librarian, have been made by a suspect held here.

The suspect, Harold F. Grant, who boasts that he has escaped from three asylums for the insane, says he was in Aurora the night of Nov. 18. "That was the night of the 'wrench murder,'" Grant's story, except as to details concerning his disposal of a shirt on which he said were blood stains, fits in with what already is known of the crime.

If any blood came from Miss Miller's wound.

Partial substantiation of his story comes from Elko, Nev., where he said he was born and raised. The records of an insane asylum in Reno show he was a patient there eight months in 1909.

One Point That Falls.

A point in Grant's story that falls of corroboration is his assertion that after destroying his clothing he got a new outfit from the Salvation army station in Wheaton. The Salvation army has no headquarters in Wheaton.

A dispatch from Toledo, O., states that Grant was an inmate of the insane asylum there from Dec. 13, 1912, until Oct. 16, this year, when he was released.

Says He Wants Warm Bed.

Jamesville, Wis., Dec. 14.—Howard Grant, who gave himself up to the Jamesville police and confessed that he murdered Miss Jennie Miller of Aurora with a pipe wrench, was put through the third degree and said he didn't commit the murder at all. "I just wanted a warm place to stay this winter," the officials, however, are investigating his original story.

OFFERED WIFE $500 TO ELOPE; DIVORCE

BATAVIA WOMAN FILES SENSATIONAL CHARGE AGAINST HER HUSBAND.

Geneva, Dec. 14.—Jessica M. Stanton of Batavia today filed a sensational bill for divorce against her husband, Dr. Edward M. Stanton, who has an office in the old Stewart building, Chicago.

She alleges in her bill that her husband offered her $500 if she would elope with a man of disreputable character, whom he named, and that failing in inducing her to comply with his wishes he commenced a systematic series of physical abuses upon her and that he applied vile epithets to her, and accused her of serious offenses.

Turk Gunboat Sunk By British Submarine B-11

Made Sensational Trip Under Five Rows of Mines Sunday

(Associated Press)

London, Dec. 14.—An official announcement made this morning tells of the sensational and successful operation of a British submarine in the Turkish waters, which resulted in the sinking of a Turkish gunboat. The official announcement says:

"Yesterday submarine B-11 of the Royal navy, in charge of Lieutenant Commander Holbrook, entered the Dardanelles, dived under five rows of mines and torpedoed the Turkish battleship Messudieh which was guarding the mine fields. Although pursued by torpedo boats the B-11 returned successfully after being submerged for nine hours. When last seen the Messudieh was sinking by the stern."

The Messudieh was built by England in 1874 and carried 600 men.

Prohibition Measure Cause Of Much Worry

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—(Special)—The holiday season has taken on a gloomy aspect for scores of members of the house of representatives since the rules committee announced that it would call up both the national prohibition and woman suffrage resolutions on Dec. 22.

With rare exceptions, the only approximately happy members are those representing overwhelmingly "wet" or "dry" districts. They generally will vote the sentiment of their districts with the knowledge that only a minority of their constituents will condemn them.

However, those members whose districts are somewhat evenly divided on the liquor question are being harassed with forebodings of the consequences of the roll call on the Hobson resolution. Whichever way they

NO PROHIBITING ORDER IS ISSUED ON PUBLIC SALES

EPIDEMIC AT PAW PAW APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFULLY CHECKED.

ONE SALE IS POSTPONED

Sale In Vicinity of Infected Herds Was Sent to Take Place Dec. 22.

The outbreak of the foot and mouth disease in two herds of cattle near Paw Paw Saturday, following close on the announcement of the State Board of Live Stock Commissioners that state veterinarians were empowered to prohibit public sales within any county in which the epidemic had appeared, has created an exceptional wave of interest among the farmers who had arranged for or were contemplating public sales.

Advices from Paw Paw this morning were to the effect that no new cases of the disease have been reported; and it is not believed any order will be issued prohibiting sales in Lee county, although one sale in the immediate vicinity of the farms on which the epidemic has appeared has been postponed. This sale was advertised for Dec. 22.

(Associated Press)

Goethals, governor of the Panama Canal Zone, today reiterated his request that two torpedo boat destroyers be sent to the canal waters to prevent violation of neutrality through the misuse of wireless station and taking on coal by belligerent vessels. Secretary Garrison said he would take the matter up with the state and navy departments and that proper action will be taken. The alleged violations of neutrality have been the basis of the strong representations to the British minister at Panama.

TURN DOWN FULTZ DEMANDS

Ben Johnson Admits Players Fraternity Requests Were Denied.

New York, Dec. 14.—Ben Johnson, president of the American league, admits that the national commission has flatly denied to entertain favorably any one of nine demands presented to the triumvirate in special meeting here last week by David L. Fultz, president of the Base Ball Players' fraternity. The refusal of the commission was based upon a line in keeping with the recent policies of economy endorsed by both the National and American leagues.

Mr. Johnson declared that the two most important concessions demanded by the union would have imposed upon organized base ball unfair financial burdens. Fultz and his board of directors wished organized base ball to bind itself to accept immediately upon purchase or draft, players secured from the smaller circuits. It was also desired that these same club owners should guarantee full salaries to those players turned back to clubs of lower classification.

CONFIDENCE.

Confidence is that mysterious mental talent which enables a banker to loan a citizen $500 on $6,000 worth of perfectly good security without accumulating white hair while waiting for the note to mature.

The United States is operated upon cash and confidence in equal parts. This is a busy and growing nation and it has no time to wait for Alaska to produce the gold necessary to finance our activities. When an American citizen has accumulated a thousand dollars he makes the first payment upon a $5,000 business and leans against confidence for support.

As a rule this works so well that in two years the citizen has paid the other $4,000. He now takes his $5,000 in property, mixes it with $10,000 worth of fine, healthy American confidence which is composed of two parts hustle, three parts optimism and five parts recklessness, and launches gaily forth in a $15,000 venture.

About this time a presidential election approaches and it becomes necessary, for political reasons, to pull the bung out of the confidence barrel. This is done by the newspaper which are hostile to the administration with skill and dispatch. The close-ing down of a pickle factory is advertised in large type while the opening of a new steel mill is censored by the political editor. Pale men with overhanging brows toil over editorials deplo- ring the fact that the nation will soon be reduced to one meal a day and a general cloud of thick woolly gloom settles down over all who are not in accord with the administration.

This continues for a month or two after which the banker begins to suffer from heart failure. Summoning the manufacturer he orders him to close up his mills, pay up his notes and deposit his wife's jewelry as collateral for a small loan to pay his board bill. He piles his cash in the darkest corner of the bank vaults, builds concrete walls in front of the pile and when the citizen who desires to borrow $1,000 on two counties in Texas, approaches him he utters a low cry and faints with surprise.

About this time the last drop of confidence runs out of the barrel and the darkest country then wallows through three years of hard times waiting for the new crop of common sense to ripen.

Confidence is not the most solid foundation for business, but since we insist on doing business in this country on cash, confidence and gail, we should protect all three and the politician attempting to unhead the confidence barrel should be ejected with emphasis and dispatch.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

BE-IT-IT-IT.

We sincerely and most persistently hope that the man who was yelping for an old fashioned cold wave, is satisfied.

A Sterling undertaker advertises in his window: "Open evenings until Christmas." Do your shopping early. The bargain sales and holiday crushes give the women great opportunities. During a real successful afternoon they can find an opportunity to hand a few real pokes to some of their friends that they dislike.

It's a terrible thing when a habit gets hold of a man. Just think how shocking it must be for the man who is never happy unless he is working.

The Real Reason.
A good story is being told on a certain Sterling man who never misses an opportunity to address the pupils at the schools. Consequently when Gov. Dunne recently proclaimed an "Illinois day" this good citizen hiked to the nearest school. Before the ceremonies began the principal arose and asked the children: "Now I wonder if any of you know what we are here for?" and when one little brown hand went up in the air, its owner was promptly requested to answer the question, which he did: "To hear that there feller talk."

Goose Hollow Letter.
Old Tobias (Grouch) Clark is having his annual convulsions because the town is going to have band concerts by the Goose Hollow Silver Cornet Military band next summer. If Clark could find a place where there hasn't no schools, nor churches nor music, he'd be all right—and by cracker he's going to find such a place before so very long.

army a circular is gotten out and is usually sent to where the man enlisted as well as to where his home might be. One of these circulars announcing the disappearance of young McGregor was received in this city by the police department in which a reward of $50 was offered for the apprehension of the young man. Police Commissioner Van Bibber noticed in the last that one of the deserters was from Franklin Grove and he recalled George W. McGregor as being a young man whom he knew by sight. Saturday he learned that young McGregor had shown up at the home of his grandparents and he wired the Adjutant General and received instructions to deliver the young man at Fort Sheridan and claim reward.

Sheriff Phillips and Mr. Van Bibber expect to take the young man to Chicago tomorrow morning.

Misses Mary Todd, Neva McCleary and Dr. Evans and Clinton Mossholder motored to Grand Detour last evening for supper.

Mrs. Eugene Harrington went to Chicago today to remain until after the holidays.

Can Cross Ruse Territory.

Sofia, Dec. 14.—(Via Rome)—The Roumanian envoy has notified the government that the transit of goods including war material destined for Bulgaria will be allowed henceforth across Russian territory.

Naco, Ariz., Dec. 14.—Governor Jose Maria Maytorena at his headquarters before Naco, Sonora, explained his attitude since the United States army placed a dozen cannon so as to command his position and that of General Hill, who is defending Naco.

The governor was laughing and cheerful, and apparently the menace of American cannon or the movements of the American army are the least of his worries.

He said frankly that he had no intention of desisting from his attack on Naco, declaring that few if any of his bullets had ever crossed the international line, and there was therefore no reason why he should change his tactics.

"I have no orders from any superior to desist from the attack," he said, "and therefore fail to see why I should withdraw or change my plan of operations. It is not my men who are endangering the American side, and we certainly can not be held responsible for the actions of our enemies."

HISTORIC HOTEL IS BURNED

International at Virginia City, Nev., Housed Bonanza Kings.

Reno, Dec. 14.—The historic International hotel at Virginia City, with all its reminders of those famous men and events of Big Bonanza days of the wonderful Comstock lode, is today a smoldering mass of ruins. A fire of unknown origin has reduced the once luxurious furnishings of solid mahogany and rosewood, its historic paintings and mammoth glass mirrors to a mass of ashes. Snow which covered the adjoining structures alone saved the city from a conflagration.

This famous six story hostelry housed kings, potentates, princes of finance, kings and queens of the foot lights in the days of the Comstock lode and General Grant was entertained there like royalty upon his return from a trip around the world by the bonanza king, Mackay Flood. The loss is estimated at a third of a million.

HENRY CLEWS IS ENCOURAGED.

Henry Clews, the New York banker and financial expert, writes under a New York date line, in part:

The Stock Exchange has made another important step toward complete resumption. Dealings are openly restored on stocks, with these restrictions: No sales below minimum prices of July 30th, dividend adjustment included; and open trading only in the list of stocks specifically named. Dealings will be permitted in nearly 200 out of the 565 shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

This action marks the almost complete mobilization of American finances on a war basis. Our financial markets have at last successfully emerged from perhaps the most critical period in history; and, thanks to the sound and firm policy of the Stock Exchange, the country has escaped any serious financial disaster. There is no longer any danger of panic, and the future of prices must now be governed by influences open to judgment of the public. Let us consider what those influences are. The war naturally remains the paramount consideration, but its effects have been amply if not fully discounted. Indirectly its course must have a decided influence upon values; yet, until peace prospects become much more definite, discrimination will have to be exercised in the attitude toward securities. There is a vast mass of American investments which are practically beyond war influences. These have weathered the storm safely, and must be among the first to recover from the late depressions. Our neutrality and our distance from the conflict are inestimable advantages that should not be forgotten.

Taking the war at its fair value, home influences must be regarded as the most important measure of intrinsic values. The whole country, and especially the West, is now feeling the advantage of a good harvest. This is particularly true of the great wheat belt, where the farmers are reaping profitable prices for an enormous yield. Undoubtedly the war has brought prosperity to the West, not only in good prices for food products, but also through liberal contracts for army supplies in which the East has a very considerable share. The South has been hurt by the war more than any other section owing to the low price of cotton and the temporary stoppage of exports. These conditions, however, are being gradually rectified; the South is less dependent upon a single crop than ever before, and the problem of financing the huge 16,000,000-bale crop is being surely solved, and there is every indication that before long consumption will begin to recover the losses of the last four months. There will be a big surplus left over for next season, which will necessitate a reduction of acreage in the coming crop; nevertheless, from the agricultural point of view the country as a whole is sound and prosperous.

GETTING UP IN THE MORNING.

It's nice to get up in the morning.

When the sun begins to shine;

Four or five or six o'clock,

In the good old summer time.

But when the snow is snowing,

And it's murky overhead,

It's nice to get up in the morning—

But it's nicer to stay in bed.

If it is decided to shove the clock ahead an hour and everybody goes to work an hour earlier in the morning the above song, sung with such success by Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian, promises to become popular, observes the Freeport Journal-Standard.

The Chicago Association of Commerce is backing a movement to change this section of the country to eastern time. That would mean that our clocks would be set ahead one hour. It is argued that if everybody would get down to his place of business at the same hour of the clock as now, which in reality for us is central time, would be one hour earlier, they would get off one hour earlier in the afternoon and thus have one hour longer of daylight recreation.

Edwin R. Wright, representing organized labor, has endorsed the movement. He says:

"Hundreds of workers of Chicago are affected with tuberculosis as a result of inside confinement. If you add an hour of daylight to his day he will take more exercise in the open air and he will be in better physical and moral condition to do his work, the next day. This hour of outdoor exercise will teach him how to play."

There are others, however, who do not take kindly to the plan. Another argument in favor of the plan as presented from a Chicago standpoint is that in New York business opens one hour sooner than it does in Chicago and this gives New Yorkers an advantage over Chicagoans through the usage of the early cables and stock reports. Unless San Francisco, which sleeps two hours longer in the morning than does Chicago, is not included in the movement her citizens would probably raise a wail that they would be put to a big disadvantage. They would probably raise just as loud a wail if they were expected to be at their desks or work bench at what is now 5 o'clock in the morning. Even so, they would have a half day of daylight for recreation. No matter how you figure it there would be advantages to some and disadvantages to others and it is doubtful whether one would prove enough better than the other to warrant an attempt to regulate the sun by the hands of the clock.

There is real danger that Switzerland, Afghanistan or Luxemburg will take Congressman Gardner seriously and come over and knock the whey out of our navy.

It is a safe bet that Bryan's appointee as successor to Herrick in Paris will not bring home the grand cross of the legion of honor.

By the way, when the French conferred that decoration upon the retiring American ambassador, did they reflect on the fact that he was acting ambassador for Germany and Russia?

WASTED MONEY.

You're free with your money, Charles Absalom Jones; you think it is funny to blow in your bones. Your wealth you are blowing with insolent ease, as though it were growing on gooseberry trees. But now, ere you squander your last blooming red, consider and ponder—oh, Charles, look ahead! The swift years are spinning away to their bourne, soon you'll be beginning your lost youth to mourn; you'll find that the dollar is harder to nail, and then you will holler, but 'twill not avail. Old men by the bushel are starving today, and, Charles, the whole push'll bear out what I say. Had they but a fragment of wealth they would blow to learn what a jag meant in days long ago, they now might be resting in comfort and ease, a-smiling and jesting, serene as you please. The old men are straying through alley and street; the old men are praying for something to eat; they throng in the city, starved, weary and lame; oh chee, what a pity! oh, Charles, what a shame! And once they were blowing their rubles with grace; and once they were going your idiot pace. Their clamorings reach you, their sighs and their groans; do they nothing teach you, Charles Absalom Jones?

WARNED TO USE CARE AROUND X-MAS TREE

STATE FIRE MARSHAL'S OFFICE ISSUES TIMELY BULLETIN ON SUBJECT.

The State Fire Marshal's office has issued a very timely warning against carelessness during the holiday season in Bulletin No. 16:

It seems important at this time to call your attention to some of the dangers of the lighted Christmas tree, because of the fact that many homes and most of the schools have Christmas exercises and Christmas trees.

When the Christmas tree is trimmed and lighted it is nothing more nor less than a big torch, ready to be lighted. The tree is always an evergreen whose twigs are full of resin. It is strimmed with festoons of tissue paper and wreaths of dry leaves which will burn with a flash. Many of the presents are made of celluloid, which explodes when heated and burns fiercely. Other presents are covered with lace or embroidery which may be lighted by a spark and the paper Christmas bells, the netting of which the candy bags are made, and the dry painted wood in the toys are all easily ignited. In the excitement of Christmas exercises children are sometimes difficult to control and accidents frequently happen.

Last Christmas while attending the Christmas exercises of a school in this state, we saw a beautifully trimmed and lighter Christmas tree with the floor underneath the tree covered with highly inflammable cotton to represent snow. One of the exercises of the evening was a song sung by six little girls wearing their night dresses and carrying lighted candles, who marched while singing "round and round the tree. What would have happened had one of these little girls dropped her candle or one had fallen from the tree is awful to contemplate.

Cotton should never be used to represent snow, either on or under a tree, because the same effect can be obtained by using asbestos or mineral wool, which is safe. Care should be taken to see that the candles are securely fastened to the tree and so arranged that they cannot set fire to the branches of the tree or the presents hung upon them. All ways extinguish the candles before beginning to remove the gifts from the tree.

Last year a number of fires and a number of serious accidents resulted from not taking proper precautions in regard to Christmas trees.

Christmas Tree Don'ts.

Don't leave the lighted tree unwatched.

Don't put cotton beneath the tree to make the carpet look like snow covered ground.

Don't let the children touch the tree.

Don't use festoons of ordinary tissue paper or cotton batting on a tree.

Don't use ornaments made of celluloid.

Don't remove presents from the tree until the candles are extinguished.

Don't permit a draft of air to sway the branches of the tree while candles are lighted.

PROHIBITION CAUSE OF MUCH WORRY

constitutional amendment to the states. But more votes will be cast for the prohibition than for the suffrage measure.

The supporters of the Hobson resolution are inclined to be angry at Secretary of State Bryan for taking the stand in the Commoner that prohibition is a state, not a national question. They realize that Mr. Bryan, by assuming this attitude, has cost them dozens, if not scores of votes in the houses.

Arguments of "Drys."

Led by the members from the ten prohibition states, the "drys" intend to marshal all of the possible arguments for their cause, including those which have been supplied by the big world war. They will argue that the action of the belligerent countries in the supreme national crisis has demonstrated the real iniquity of liquor. They will point to the rejuvenation of Russia as a result of the czar's prohibition ukase and to the suppression of the bsinthe traffic by France and will dwell upon the kaiser's advice to abstain from beer and Lord Kitchen-er's recommendation that spirituous drinks be tabooed.

The "wets" will respond with arguments that America needs no such drastic measures to prevent the evils of intemperance; that the control of the liquor traffic is a local, not a national question, and that the republic, particularly in times necessitating emergency taxation, cannot afford to forego the $150,000,000 revenue that is derived from brewing and distilling.

Mrs. W. J. McAlpine spent today in Chicago.

U.S. MINE TOLL EXCEEDS WAR'S

Total Loss Greater Than That of British Army.

HUMAN LIFE IS DISREGARDED

Figures From Annual Official Report Show a Total of Casualties Greater Than Total American Standing or Reserve Armies—Most of Accidents Are Preventable.

Washington, Dec. 14.—More men were killed or injured in United States mines in a year than England has lost in the present war. The figures are greater than those of the entire United States standing army or its reserve army.

Three thousand have been killed and 100,000 injured in the mining and metallurgical industries during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1914, according to the annual report of the director of the bureau of mines. England's losses in the war so far are estimated at 90,000.

Majority Were Preventable.

"One-half of these fatalities and three-fourths of the injuries may be regarded as easily preventable," says the report. "The money loss from the accidents may be estimated at not less than $12,000,000 a year, and this loss must ultimately be paid by the consumers of mineral products."

"Preventive measures will need to be based on investigations made by technically trained men. The bureau lacks the funds necessary to make the investigations."

Conditions Improved.

Even with a scant force of experts the bureau was able to improve conditions in the mines. Through the study of coal mine explosions and the work at the government's experimental mine, four types of explosion stopping devices were developed. The development of these barriers was the most important mine safety accomplishment of the year.

Mine rescue training was given 2,826 miners, first aid instruction and training to 5,780. At the end of the year the total of miners trained by the bureau since its organization in 1910 was 24,975.

ITALIAN CRUISER IS RUSHED

Turkey's Action Toward Consulate Coincides With Jihad Proclamation.

Rome, Dec. 14.—The Italian armored cruiser Marco Polo has been rushed to Hodeida. The foreign office is informed that the Italian consulate has been surrounded by armed troops since Nov. 11 and that its consul was practically imprisoned until the arrival of the Giuliana on Dec. 3. Baron Sonnino, minister of foreign affairs, has wired Constantinople insisting upon immediate repatriation, adding that otherwise Italy will consider that Turkey approves of the violence and abuses perpetrated by the authorities at Hodeida.

Deputy Gallenga points out that the incident coincides with the proclamation of the jihad and also with the evacuation of Pezzan. Besides, he says that the islands off Hodeida have been converted into a German hospital, hence necessarily are in communication with Constantinople. These facts are regarded here as most significant.

THINK BATTLESHIP HAS BEEN DOOMED

BRITISH NAVAL EXPERT SAYS
DREADNAUGHTS WILL BE OBSOLETE.

London, Nov. 30.—Correspondence of the Associated Press—England in all probability will never lay down an other dreadnaught, says one of the foremost ship builders in this country who for obvious reasons, cannot be quoted. All the dreadnaughts, according to this authority, which have been laid down will be rushed to completion but no orders will be given for any more vessels of this type. The policy was under serious consideration when the Audacious went to the bottom and the recent loss of the Bulwark has only served to confirm the opinion that the battleship as a fighting craft is doomed.

All new construction in the British shipyards consists of heavily armored cruisers of great coal carrying capacity, destroyers and submarines. For ten miles along the Tyne in coming into Newcastle the passengers on the boats cannot hear each other speak because of the din of steam hammers most of which are making destroyers and submarines.

When Sir Percy Scott expressed a doubt of the efficiency of the dreadnaughts just after England had placed her seal on it as the premier fighting unit of naval warfare, his unorthodoxy made him the strategic heretic of his time, but this war has come near to vindicating his theory for thus far not a single success can be placed to the credit of a dreadnaught while the experimental, almost despised submarine has won most of the naval laurels.

France is also reported as hurrying the construction of submarines while Russia is said to have asked for tenders on a submarine of two thousand tons.

THRILLING ENCOUNTER WITH BOLD BURGLAR

Altonian Slugged and Robbed and Home Burned.

Alton, Ill., Dec. 11.—After being robbed and attacked by a burglar, who set fire to his house, Clyde Roach of Alton escaped from a second story window with the aid of an improvised rope of bed sheets. Later he was found unconscious in front of a neighbor's home and taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Roach's home was damaged to the extent of $3,000. His wife, who was visiting in northern Illinois, is on her way to Alton.

Three hours after being found, Roach recovered and told the story of the attack. He remembered placing $60 under his pillow, and recalled being struck on the head by an intruder, after a struggle, but could tell nothing of the escape.

Roach said the burglar came to the front door and rang the bell. When he opened the door, he said, the burglar rushed into the house as if to attack him. Roach was overtaken by the intruder when running to his room to get a revolver.

1,337 FIRES IN NOVEMBER

Illinois Reports that Forty-eight of These Were Incendiary.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 14.—There were 1,337 fires in Illinois during November, causing a loss of $1,097,040, according to Fire Marshal Walter A. Bennett.

Chicago reported 493 fires with a loss of $295,573. Forty-eight of the fires in the state were reported as incendiary origin.

Wolf Attacks Illinois Sheep.

Pana, Ill., Dec. 14.—The first wolf that has made his appearance in this section of Illinois within the last twenty years, was discovered making an onslaught on a herd of sheep belonging to Jack Hudson near Lithia Springs, east of Shelbyville. It was a large gray timber wolf, and killed several sheep before a son of Hudson could drive him off. Twenty-five farmers of Lithia spent the day in search of the wolf.

Ewing to Oppose College Removal.

Benton, Ill., Dec. 14.—The action of the trustees in voting to remove Ewing college from Ewing to Marion, has caused quite a stir in Franklin county, and more than likely a legal battle will be the result. It is said that the institution was originally owned by a stock company, and that the stock in full was never turned over to the Baptists.

Robbers at Rosemond, Ill.

Pana, Ill., Dec. 14.—The post office and general store of Christner & Cutler and the hardware store of Horace Lawrence at Rosemond, four miles west of Pana, were robbed early in the morning. Much loot was hauled away in wagons and a quantity of money and stamps was taken from the post office and stores.

CHRISTMAS FUNDS PAID OUT TUESDAY

CITY NATIONAL BANK TO DIS-BURSE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS.

Thousands of dollars will be put into circulation in Dixon and surrounding towns tomorrow, when the City National Bank Christmas Saving fund will send out its checks to its hundreds of members. The many members of the fund who had the acumen last year to look ahead a year will soon receive the reward of their thrift.

The checks coming right at the time when every person is wondering where he will be able to get enough money to buy all the Christmas presents he wishes to give, will be a boon to the Christmas shoppers. The issuing of these checks will mean not only crowded stores and happy Christmas awakenings but also that many persons who never before could start a saving fund will now deposit their checks in their bank so as to have something toward a rainy day.

Next year's club opens Monday, December 21, at which time new members will be permitted to join. This club has taught many people to save small amounts who, without its aid, were accustomed to look forward to Christmas with apprehension that they would be unable to purchase presents for all the friends they desired to remember. It has also aided many in buying "that home" which for many years had been looked at with envy.

Many memberships are kept up by husbands for their wives as a present and by many wives to present to their husbands. Fathers often practice self-denial so as to be able to keep up the fund and when they receive the check immediately place it in the bank to help pay for "Johnnie's" or "Mary's" education.

The City National bank has done a big service for the community in providing this plan and in taking care of the details during the year. They will start a second club in a few days. The plans are explained in an advertisement in another part of this paper.

ORIGIN OF THE ONYX.

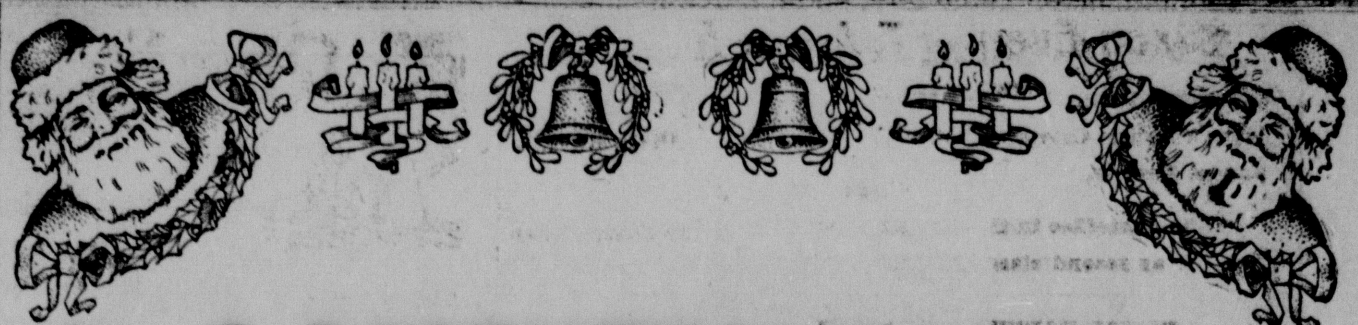

When waters charged with carbonate of calcium derived from limestone are allowed to evaporate they deposit their load in the form of sinter, or tufa. This process can be observed at many thermal and "petrifying" springs and also in the formation of stalactites and stalagmites in limestone caverns. In this way large masses of compact carbonate are formed, some of them of great beauty. The so-called "onyx marbles," of which the Mexican "onyx" is a familiar example, are formed in this way. Some rock of this class is stalagmitic, in caverns, and some of it is formed by springs. Its variations in color and texture, to which its ornamental character is largely due, are commonly produced by impurities or inclusions, such as oxide of iron, or even mud and clay.

CHANGE OF FRONT.

There is a radical change in sentiments among Congressmen in regard to the matter of national defense. Whether due to the recent co-mingling of congressmen and the folks "back home" or merely to politics is not known. But at any rate there is apt to be something done by the next congress in the matter of putting the country into shape to repel invasion or assert our rights. Some of the belligerents would like to mix us in the fight if they could and the winner of the present war might get so chummy as to start something after it is all over. In either case, this nation ought to be in a position to care for itself. To this end national defense commissions may be created to consist of eminent naval and army officials who would direct the work needed. It is a most excellent idea and would undoubtedly receive the hearty support of the people.—Elgin News.

CRIME AND RELIGION.

A man whose home is a suburb of the great city of New York is in prison awaiting trial on a charge of murder. He shot and killed a youth who, in spite of paternal objection had married his daughter. The killing occurred in the office of the girl's father, whither the young man had gone to apprise him of what had happened and to ask forgiveness and blessing. Instead there were bitter words and after hot remarks on both sides the father drew a revolver. When the smoke cleared away he found that his daughter was a widow. It was briefly mentioned in news reports that the objection to the match was a "difference of religion of the parties." It is an old story—crime committed in the name of religion. History is full of such crimes. The soil of Europe and Asia and of Africa has been reddened with blood of the people slaughtered in wars because of a "difference of religion of the parties." Nations and individuals have committed crimes in the name of religion. Crimes in the name of religion, or because of differences with regard to religion, where committed before the sun of Christianity dawned on the world and will continue while peoples and persons who profess to be Christians remain pagans in instinct and impulse. Religious difference which leads to violence and murder and religious differences which depopulate provinces, states and empires are far removed from the pure religion and undefiled which was preached nearly 2000 years ago in Palestine.—Pittsburg Telegraph.

Dramatic Notes

"SEPTEMBER MORN."

Now for something new theatrically; Rowland and Clifford's big production—a musical play named "September Morn" having selected this popular subject for a lively piece with music which introduces a big company of 50 people. The chorus trips through the latest Tangos, Shark Swish Dips and the Hesitation dances fetchingly, over which the country has fairly gone wild. The scenery and costuming are brilliant.

A great cast are among the principals and the chorus is made up mostly of girls, pretty of face and figure, superbly costumed. This company just closed a happy, successful run at the LaSalle Opera house. Coming to the Dixon opera house, Thursday, Dec. 15.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

On Tuesday, Dec. 15, the Princess will show the Tribune's Belgian War Pictures, the first and only authentic motion pictures of the European war. These pictures taken by Edwin F. Weigle of the Chicago Tribune on the battlefields of Belgium are portrayed realistically in these pictures, which are still playing to packed houses at the Studebaker theatre in Chicago, where hundreds of people are turned away daily. The war has been brought to your door. The Chicago Tribune under contract with the Belgian government has secured the only privilege to take motion pictures of the battlefields of Belgium. 50 per cent of the proceeds going to the Red Cross work.

The pictures show the genuine effects of the burning of Antwerp, the battle of Aerschoot, the battle of Alost, the destruction of Termonde, the flooding of Lierre and the battle of alines, four reels of the most sensational war pictures ever taken. The Princess theatre has paid an enormous price for these pictures and a large crowd will be necessary to cover the expense of this undertaking. There will be a matinee from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and all those who can possibly come are requested to do so to avoid the crowd at night.

FAMILY THEATRE

A special six reel feature picture of "The Wrath of the Gods" taken from a Japanese legend, will be shown this evening. It is a very beautiful love story of an American who weds a Japanese maiden, thereby invoking the wrath of the gods, from which a most wonderful and realistic story is woven, showing a volcanic eruption that will make you gasp and shudder. It is a romance in its most beautiful bloom.

On Tuesday evening the eighteenth series of the Perils of Pauline will be shown, leaving but two more installments to complete the series. The admission tonight is 5 and 10c.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

St. Elmo, 6 wonderful reels picturing Augusta Evans' world famous novel. 194 gorgeous scenes, the most elaborate, most extravagant, most painstaking contribution to the silent drama, depicting the manners and costumes of days before the civil war when the chivalry of southern gentlemen was proverbial; when men settled their grievances on the field of honor and none could recklessly assail the name of a lady. In picture form St. Elmo is the very greatest love story of all ages, the numerous interior scenes being augmented by scores of exterior views that the limitations of stagecraft exclude, and the spot selected for the enactment of the celebrated duel is peculiarly appropriate. In this wonderful production there are six thousand feet of perfect photography, vividly clear and restful to the eyes. St. Elmo will hold you spellbound. This great film will be shown at the opera house tonight for only 10 and 5 cents.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess theatre will show an unusual program including a two reel feature entitled "His Responsibility," a two reel Reliance drama with W. E. Lawrence and Irene Hunt in the leading roles. This is a story in which a desperate man is saved in the nick of time. The other pictures are "Naidra, the Dream Woman," a Thanhouser drama with Morris Foster and Mignon Anderson in the leading roles. This is a scientist's fantasy. The other picture is entitled "The Old Good for Nothing," a Majestic drama with a strong virile picture drama, well produced.

"UNDER COVER," A SISTER SUCCESS TO "WITHIN THE LAW"

Cohen's Grand—Chicago
When Selwyn and Company produced their first big melodramatic success, "Within the Law," the wisecracks of the theatrical world set it down as merely that luck which oftentimes attends the entry of a new firm of producers in the theatrical business.

"Wait until they try it again" they said with a knowing shake of their heads.

Now this young firm of producers have tried it again—and succeeded. In "Under Cover," their second offering in the melodramatic field, they have found a play that, while it will not quite equal the marvelous record of the first big success which was truly phenomenal—will at least net them a tidy fortune.

"Under Cover" opened at the Plymouth theatre in Boston during the early part of last season. It was booked for but a two weeks' engagement at this theatre which had been doing bad business. The play caught the public fancy at once and weeks' engagement its time was extended. When it at last closed, had been played.

The Dixon Evening Telegraph and the Orange Judd Farmer, one year in advance $3 by mail. Take advantage of this generous offer.

A Cozy Fire, A Comfy Chair, A Book! Only one kind of chair has a rightful place in this December picture.

You have that chair in mind now; and we have it here—at much less than the big round figures you thought you'd have to pay.

Own this chair today; you might as well be comfortable now as to envy the comfortable man for useless years. The chair is one of those big deep fellows that hold out both arms to you when the nights are long and cool.

Let us show you.

DRESDEN'S FATE NOT DETERMINED

Her Escape by Flight from British Squadron Impossible.

ASHORE AND MAY BE INTERNED

Wounded in Late Naval Battle Returning to England Aboard Steamer—French and German Communications Claim Gains—Berlin Says 11,000 More Russ Are Prisoners.

London, Dec. 14.—With British warships hovering off the harbor to prevent her escape, the German cruiser Dresden, the only one of Vice Admiral Von Spee's squadron of five warships left afloat, is reported aground at Puerto Gallagos in the Estuary of the Gallegos river on the Patagonian coast.

Puerto Gallagos is about 400 miles due west of the Falkland islands, off which the naval battle was fought, and sixty or seventy miles north of the Magellan straits. It is believed that even if the Dresden can get off, her commander will elect to have his vessel interned by Argentina instead of making a suicidal attempt to run the gauntlet of the British vessels waiting off the coast. The Estuary of the Gallegos is wide, but its shallow waters abound in sand bars, upon which the Dresden probably grounded.

Wounded on Steamship.
The British steamship Oronsay, bound from Valparaiso to Liverpool, encountered the British squadron under Vice Admiral Sir Frederick Sturdee after the battle and the few British wounded and such German wounded as were rescued, were placed on board of her. She has probably reached Montevideo. The number of wounded on board of her is not stated in the dispatches received from Montevideo.

Germans Claim Double Success.
Berlin, Dec. 14.—The day's official communication issued by the German army headquarters announces that several Russian positions in North Poland were stormed and 11,000 prisoners taken and that an attack made by French troops over a wide area in France Saturday was repulsed by the Germans. The text of the statement reads:

"Following their unsuccessful attack on Apremont Dec. 11 the French again attacked yesterday afternoon over a large front by way of Flirey (Creux). The attack ended in the loss to the enemy of 600 prisoners and a large number of men killed and injured. Our losses in this engagement amounted to about seventy wounded. The rest of the day passed quietly in the western theater.

"In northern Poland we captured a number of the enemy's positions taking 11,000 prisoners and forty-three machine guns. There is no news from East Prussia or from southern Poland."

French Statement.
Paris, Dec. 14.—The afternoon's war office statement says:

"The day of Dec. 12 was particularly quiet. The enemy's activity was shown especially by an intermittent cannonade at different points on the front. In the region to the southeast of Ypres there were ventured, however, three violent infantry attacks which were repulsed.

"In the woods of Lepretre we have made important progress.

"In the Vosges the enemy has attacked on various occasions the post of Lamere Henri, to the northwest of Senones, but was repulsed.

"Serbia—The extreme Serbian left wing pursuing the enemy has forced him to re-cross the Drina near Baina Basta. On the remainder of the front the Serbian armies continue to drive back the Austrians to the north and northwest."

ZEPPELIN ATTACK ON BRITAIN

Correspondent Says Flyer Leaves Sheds Every Three Weeks.

London, Dec. 14.—A correspondent of the Turin Stampa, who declares he had access to the Zeppelin sheds at Friedrichshafen, says that eighteen superzeppelins will take part in an attack on Britain and its fleet in the spring. The correspondent says that every three weeks an airship leaves the works for a secret destination.

Headlines Censored.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The censor has forbidden any headlines on the official communiques in the French press on account of abuses in playing up trivial incidents mentioned in recent dull communiques.

Food for Our "Adequats."

Rome, Dec. 14.—Senator Morandi will submit a motion to the senate urging that Italy, whether she intervenes or not, should insist that peace be conditional on a simultaneous general disarmament.

Old Reservists Called Out.

Rome, Dec. 14.—Mountain artillery and the reservists of the 1887 and 1888 classes have been called out for a month of training.

ITS HARD TO WORK

WHEN SUFFERING FROM KIDNEY ILLS—MANY DIXON PEOPLE FIND THIS TRUE.

What's so hard as a day's work with an aching back?
Or sharp "stabs" of pain with every sudden twist or turn.
There is no peace from the dull ache—

No rest from the soreness, lameness and weariness. If the kidneys are disordered you can't reach the cause too soon.

Neglect is often fatal.

Weak kidneys need prompt attention.

Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at once—

A tested and proven kidney remedy.

Dixon readers should find new hope in the following statement.
John Salzman, 103 Artesian Ave., Dixon, says: "I had backache a great deal and pains across my loins. My kidneys didn't act regularly and I felt miserable in every way. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Leake Bros.' Drug store and they did good work in relieving me. I kept a supply in the house now and whenever I take them, they help me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Salzman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

EAST INDIAN SOLDIERS HAVE A PECULIAR WAY OF FIGHTING.

Southampton, Eng., Nov. 30.—Correspondence of the Associated Press—A Canadian soldier who has visited several hospitals in the south of England recently saw forty or fifty East Indians all of whom had their left hands bandaged. He asked one of the Red Cross attendants how they all received the same sort of injuries:

"All of them have bayonet wounds in their left hand because of their style of fighting," was the reply. "When they get close enough for a hand-to-hand fight they throw down their guns, parry the bayonets of the enemy with their left hand and use their knives with the right hand. Of course they get a bad wound in their left hand but don't mind that and almost always get their man."

Germans Use Esperanto

Hayre, Nov. 30.—Correspondence of the Associated Press—Even Esperanto has not been overlooked by the Kaiser's press bureau as a means of presenting the German side of the war to the people of neutral countries. One of these reports has found its way to Hayre from Switzerland, where the German official news is sent for distribution throughout the Esperanto league.

The report is headed: "Germanaj oficialaj raportoj Esperantigitaj kaj requestoj, in Esperanto, that the recipient circulate it among his friends, and see that the text is published in the newspapers of his home."

"DADDY COME BACK TO ME" TOO STRONG

Michigan Fugitive Gives Self up to St. Louis Police.

St. Louis, Dec. 14.—Christmas season and absence from home, and a five year old boy, to whom he wanted to play Santa Claus, proved an irresistible tug at the heart strings of Robert M. Billings, twenty-eight, a contractor of Flint, Mich., who accordingly stepped up to Patrolman Rick in the Union station midway and said:

"I guess I'm wanted for forgery, and rather than be away from home Christmas, I wish to be locked up and sent back."

Two or three days after the forgeries he became apprehensive of the consequences and came to St. Louis. A search for work here was fruitless, and all the time he said he heard the voice of his son calling:

"Daddy, come back to me; it's Christmas."

Friday night the call was too strong, he said, and he decided he preferred a cell near home at Christmas to freedom away. The police have wired to Flint for instructions.

Flint, Mich., Dec. 14.—Robert M. Billings is wanted here for passing worthless checks to the extent of $93 on local merchants. He is charged with signing the name of E. J. Hewley, his former employer, to the checks.

CAN'T KEEP KAISER DOWN

His Physicians Announce He Will Be at Front This Week.

Amsterdam, Dec. 14.—Germany's troops in France and Belgium will again be fighting under the personal leadership of Emperor William before the end of this week.

The kaiser's health has improved so rapidly that he is now convalescent and his physicians have given permission for him to proceed to the firing line after a short period of repose.
